If you want to be rich, better hangout with millionaires
The beautiful people are at the ball all debonair
There's good times at the bar you can feel it in the air

It takes more than just words, For us to go from here to there

If you like fish better head out to the coast,
While you're there, get a tan, on that body you'll boast
And If the existential signs say you should meditate and float
Why not feel the vibe over here?

*(Bridge) Don't make me chase you, cause u know that I will
If not for the ride, Then at least for the thrill
I must admit there's something about you makes my heart perfectly still
But you'll never know it less you show it*

I submit you give in to this and give me your hand
I promise that I won't leave you in any uncharted lands
Let's leave the games to the Olympians
And let the actors have their plays,
I know you love my evil ways

(Solos) –repeat Bridge

A thousand words can't take the place of a kiss,
A book can't explain why your touch is so rich,
The oldest living paper can't make my body feel bliss
Give me a.... stick or a stone any day...
It will take more than words .x3 ...For us to go all the way
