

Someone to Adore
M. Summers / Rich Lloyd / Audey Teeter

Someone to adore,
That is what I'm looking for Someone who's hugging, kissing, squeeze me tight, knows how to make a moment right

Someone to explore,
That is what I'm hoping for Someone who doesn't need a map to find me
Believes her place beside me beats the one behind me

(swing)
Who's to say / what road there is that we must travel
We'll get there / even if there is no road

Someone to adore,
That is what I'm looking for
And the one I'm looking for is you

Solo

Someone to adore,
That is what I'm longing for Someone that I can worship day and night,
Make my little beating heart take flight

Baby I implore you
The ticking of the clock works for us I know
Too swift arrives as tardy oh so slow

I've lived and loved up and down the road less traveled
Seems that one look from you, and I'm easily choked up...

Someone to adore
Yes the one I'm searching for
The only one that I adore...is you!
